THE AUSCHWITZ REPORT

Ondrej Čanecký Righteous among the nations

"Valer frowns. The words 'I believe her' sound quite strange and unreal to him in this situation. 'You believe the first person we met,' he says accusingly. If you want to live, you have to believe,' Charles says quietly, 'We depend on brave people, and if you want to exist among them, you have to believe in their bravery. Aren't we running to just such people to help stop this terrible madness? And don't we believe they will? I believe, I believe terribly. For if I had not believed, I should not be here, for I should long ago have hung myself there by the wires."
